

a PRAYING CHURCH

MORNING OF WORSHIP/PRAYER

This morning will be a unique time of worship through music, prayer and communion. We have spent the past two weeks talking about being a praying church. Today, we want to corporately put it to practice together! If you are new to Westgate Chapel, I invite you to engage with us. The morning feels different without a typical sermon, yet in a season in our world that has been chaotic, frustrating and more... today is a great day to slow down, and focus on who is in control and what we are thankful for!

WHAT IS IT ABOUT JESUS? HOW HAVE YOU SEEN HIS FAITHFULNESS IN THE MIDST OF THIS PAST YEAR?

Journal a prayer of thankfulness to the Lord.

TIME OF CONFESSION:

What areas of your life do you need to get right with the Lord?
In what areas is He not truly FIRST in your life?

As we prepare our hearts for communion, journal a prayer of confession but also of Thanksgiving for God's abundant grace shown towards us through Jesus' life and death on our behalf.

PRAYER FOR THOSE WHO DON'T KNOW JESUS

Take a moment to pause, reflect and ask the Holy Spirit to show you the people God has placed in your life that need to know Jesus? Write their first names below and spend a few minutes praying over them, that they would come to know Jesus.

PRAYER FOR ONENESS

Spend a few minutes praying over our church leadership and church family. Pray that we would be one in heart and in mission. Pray and ask how He would have you to be active in His Kingdom work. Ask the Holy Spirit to lead you in how to reach the people God has placed in your life that need to know Him.

PRAYER FOR THOSE WHO ARE SICK OR IN NEED

Pray over those in our church family or people in your life who are sick or in need. Pray for healing, pray for their faith in Jesus to increase and pray for how God would have you to encourage them through this season.
